MOTION BY SUPERVISOR GLORIA MOLINA

June 22, 2004

Film production is a key element of the County's economic base, supporting thousands of jobs and related businesses. While Los Angeles and California have suffered from "runaway productions" to other localities and states, the U.S. as a whole has suffered the same to foreign countries.

The United States Congress is currently considering legislation, S. 1637 (Grassley) and HR 4250 (Thomas) to reform corporate taxes, including the enhancement of tax deductions for film productions made in the U.S. According to the Senate report on S. 1637, runaway productions drain the U.S. economy by as much as $10 billion per year.

Enhancing the Federal tax treatment of U.S. film production will help "level the playing field" with foreign countries, and protect an important job base for the County's economy.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE that the Board of Supervisors send letters to the County's legislative delegation urging support for Federal legislation that curbs runaway film production to foreign countries by providing better tax treatment to firms that make films in the U.S.

MOTION TO SUPPORT FEDERAL LEGISLATION THAT CURBS RUNAWAY FILM PRODUCTION (ITEM NO. 33-D, AGENDA OF JUNE 22, 2004)

Item No. 33-D on the June 22, 2004 Agenda is a motion by Supervisor Molina to send letters to the County's Congressional delegation, urging support for Federal legislation that curbs runaway film production to foreign countries by providing better tax treatment to firms that make films in the U.S.

There are a number of pending bills that include language providing tax incentives to encourage the production of film and television projects within the United States. On March 4, 2003, your Board adopted a motion to support one of these bills, H.R. 715, introduced by Representatives Dreier and Berman, which would provide wage-based tax relief for film and television projects filmed in this country.

In addition, S. 1637 (Grassley, R-IA), a major corporate tax bill passed by the Senate last month, includes language providing tax incentives for domestic film and television production. The House version, H.R. 4520 (Thomas, R-CA), does not include similar tax incentives for domestic film production.

Congress has not yet taken any action on H.R. 715 or S. 1613, an identical Senate bill. S. 1637 and H.R. 4520 have been passed by their respective houses, but it is not certain that the differences between the bills can be resolved. According to Joint Committee on Taxation estimates, the Senate bill includes offsetting revenue-raising provisions to keep the overall bill budget neutral, while the House bill would increase the Federal budget deficit by $34 billion over 11 years. There is no bipartisan consensus on how taxes should be cut or increased, and Senate Democrats may opt to block or delay the start of the conference committee.

Support for Federal legislation that would curb runaway film production by providing tax incentives to projects produced in the United States, is consistent with prior Board actions, including approval of the motion to support H.R. 715 on March 4, 2003.
